THE SOLDIERS CONVENTION.

The importance of the coming demonstration of the "Boys in Blue" in this city cannot be over-estimated. The gallant heroes of land and water who bared their breasts in the hour of trial and fought that our country might live, are to assemble here to put in their protest against granting their vanquished enemies the privileges and concessions which treason vainly sought to obtain at the cannon's mouth. Who have a better right to dictate terms for the reconstruction of our Union, than our brave soldiers? Their patriotism has been tested upon the blood-stained, historic fields of many battles; their sufferings and privations have caused a whole nation to weep; their deeds of valor have lifted our flag from the dust, and shook the shackles from four millions of our fellow beings; their intrepidity has carried terror into the camp of the rebel hordes who have since doffed the military garb and now confront them as politicians. With the rank and file of the Union army was reposed the heart and hope of the nation during the scenes of the terrific war through which we have just passed. Can we not rely upon their patriotism, their fidelity to the best interests of the country and their sense of justice and mercy, to dictate how, and in what manner shall we reap the fruits of their victories? We can. The people of the nation have abiding faith in the wisdom of their defenders.

Just as was the war bitterly opposed during its progress by disloyal citizens of the North, so also now do they follow the soldier and strive to force him out of the councils of the nation. They bid him give way to his old enemies; ask him to acknowledge that he fought in an unjust cause, and urge that he should take to his bosom his unrepentant foe, whose blood stained hands have not been cleansed in the waters of atonement. They would have him make all sacrifices while the haughty rebel makes none. To elevate the traitor to positions of honor and trust in the nation they would have the Union soldier sink his manhood and grovel in the dust of humiliation.

The people will save the boys in blue as they saved the people. The fiat has gone forth that soldiers must be heard, and heard they will be.

Within a very few days the "Boys in Blue"—the disorganized organized army of the North—will assemble in Convention [illegible]urgh. Although their deliberations [illegible] be of a political character, the [illegible] withal will be a grand national reunion of the soldiers of the Republic. Every village, town and city of the loyal North will send forth its delegates, and beyond all doubt thousands of strangers will accompany the boys to the city. Our citizens must at once realize the great importance of according the saviors of their country a hearty, soul-inspiring and enthusiastic welcome. Let them have such a reception as will cause every brave-hearted stranger who comes in our midst to feel that we are as patriotic now as of yore, and willingly pay tribute and homage to the heroes who fought our battles.

We earnestly advise and recommend that our loyal citizens immediately set about making preparations to receive the brave "Boys in Blue" in a fitting manner. Let flags be hung out from all our dwellings, mottoes adorn our streets, and patriotic devices decorate our places of business. Every Northern State will be represented in the Convention, and the loyal Union at large looks to us to do our full duty in granting their soldiers such a welcome as will be in keeping with the gratitude due their valued services in time of war.

Mr. Seward, it is said, was sick while in this city. It is no wonder that he is sick. "Tidings out of the East and out of the North trouble him;" and he is too sagacious a man not to see and feel the fearful indignation of a deceived and outraged people against himself and against the man that he led to disgrace and ruin. Mr. Seward could have kept Andrew Johnson in the right path had he chosen to do so; but he did not so choose. Now he must take the consequences, and be sent, like Cardinal Wolsey, to hide himself in an obscurity where the benisons of his countrymen can never reach him. He must take his place in history with Aaron Burr, and his last days be like his. A sadder wreck, a more complete political bankrupt, our country has never seen.

Better and Better.—The returns so far show the Union Republican majority in Maine to be 20,076. It will probably exceed 30,000.

Singular Accident—Applications for Pardon.

New York, Sept. 14.—Mr. Joseph G. Edge, the well known manufacturer of fireworks, while in the act of stepping into a carriage in Cedar street yesterday was severely strangled by a quid of tobacco lodging in his windpipe. In his efforts to dislodge the obstruction a blood vessel was ruptured which it is feared will prove fatal. At last accounts Mr. Edge was in an exceedingly critical condition.

A Herald's Washington special says: During the President's absence quite a large number of applications for pardon from the Southern participants in the late rebellion has accumulated at the office of the Attorney General, most of them having been received there and at the White House since the departure of the Presidential party. The majority of the petitions on file now are those who were excepted from general amnesty by the first and thirteenth sections of the Amnesty proclamation, who held petty offices under the Confederate Government, or were possessors of two thousand dollars or more.

New York Cholera Report.

New York, September 14.—There were seven new cases of cholera reported in this city yesterday, and five deaths occurred from the same disease. The report of the Assistant Superintendent shows that the cholera was fast disappearing from Brooklyn, but one new case having been reported there yesterday. The cholera has broken out in Winchester county, and measures have been taken to suppress it.

A Times Washington special says; There was a slight disturbance between the police and some negroes last night, growing out of an attempt to arrest a disorderly colored woman. Pistols were fired and the police driven out, but no serious damage was done.

Latest from Canada.

New York, September 14.—The Tribune's Montreal special says: The Executive Council sat for four hours yesterday at the Capitol. The matters discussed were relative to the defense of the Maine border. On Monday, a number of men thought to be Fenians, on the Grand Trunk Railway going West, got off at the way stations of Cornwall, Matilda and Edwardsburg, in trees and fours, and dispersed in the towns. The attention of the Government has been called to the fact, as the intention of the men is thought to begin the firing of certain places, which is to initiate the next step upon the Provinces.

Base Ball Match for the Championship.

New York, September 14.—The Base Ball match for the Championship came off yesterday at Hoboken. Over fifteen thousand spectators were present. The contestants were the Atlantic Club, of Brooklyn, and the Mutual Club, of New York. It was a most exciting game, and resulted in the Atlantics gaining 17 runs to the Mutuals 15.

Hotel Thief Arrested.

New York, Sept. 14.—Henry Watson, who says he is an insurance broker, and lives at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, was arrested yesterday, charged with extensive robberies of property belonging to different boarders at various hotels in the city.

Contracts for Chinese Laborers.

New York, Sept. 14.—A New Orleans special to the Times says: The Chinese emigrant agent has made contracts for the delivery of 20,000 Celestial laborers there in time for the next year's crop.

Flatulency.
The most common cause of this difficulty is indigestion. When the natural fluids of the stomach are secreted in an unhealthy state, fermentation rapidly takes place, and the stomach and associated vessels become distended with gas, giving rise to frequent eructation or belching. The quantity of gas thus accumulated is often enormous. The treatment for this disorder should be careful diet, well cooked animal food, and use Boback's Bitters and Blood Pills the same as for dyspepsia.

Hair.
Hair is the robe which curious nature weaves
To hang upon the head, and does adorn
Our bodies; in the first hour we are born
God does bestow that garment; when we die,
That, like a soft and silken canopy
Is still spread over us. In spite of death,
Our hair grows in our grave, and that alone
Looks fresh, when all our other beauty's gone.

For ornament, for use and for health has the human head been crowned with this diadem of beauty. Time in his march, plucks out here and there a little until the head, like Esop's old man, who had two wives, who in jealously each plucked out alternately a white and a black hair, until his head was left bare. The hair sometimes becomes diseased. This is curable. It sometimes becomes untimely white. This is also curable. It is true, that most hair preparations are cheats.

Tebbett's Hair Regenerator is not a cheat. It is a scientific compound to restore white or grey hair to its original color. If the original color was red, Tebbett's Restorer will bring it back to red; if it was black, to black; that is; whatever the original color was, Tebbett's Hair Regenerator will restore it. It will also stop it from falling off. It will nourish the roots. It will cleanse them of dandruff and the debris that collects about and clogs up the roots.

Tebbett's Regenerator, will cure baldness where that is at all possible. There are two kinds of baldness.

Organic Baldness—Where there is destruction of the root and germ which creates the hair. This kind of baldness is incurable.

There is Functional Baldness. Tebbett's Regenerator will cure Functional Baldness. It will invigorate the roots. It will cleanse and purify the soil. It will stimulate the lazy, torpid germ to newness of life and energy. You will find on many heads a furziness all over the scalp; there are roots there, but a clogging of the pores; the hair can't get through the skin. It wants a stimulant and cleanliness.

Tebbett's Restorer will furnish both, but you will want, occasionally, a good wash of castile soap and water. Tebbett's Restorer is better to keep the head clean and healthy than all the oils, or pomades, or grease of bears, pigs or geese in the world. Reader, listen a minute! If your hair is harsh, dry, faded, thin and unhealthy. Tebbett's Hair Restorer will cure it. If you are threatened with or have baldness, don't give it up until you have tried Tebbett's Hair Restorar. If it don't give you satisfaction come and get your money back, and that's all that's of it. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle at Dr. Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street.

Spread the Truth!
Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health would be a close monopoly and not accessible to all. The argument is bad. It is worse than that; it is inhuman. Suppose Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous disability—had never been known beyond the repertoire of the faculty, what would have been the consequence? Instead of curing and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon this principle that the Bitters have been advertised and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of any prominence in the western hemisphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all modern languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequaled invigorant and corrective far and wide. Suppose profit has been reaped from this publicity. Is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge to exertions that directed their fair reward?

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

We Shall Eat the Fruit
A blacksmith had in his possession, but under mortgage, a house and piece of ground. Like many others, he was at one time fond of a social glass, but was, happily, induced by a friend to join the Temperance society. About three months after, he observed his wife one morning busily employed planting rose bushes and fruit trees, "Mary," said he, "I have owned this lot for five years, and yet have never known you before care to improve and ornament it in this manner." "Indeed," replied the smiling wife, "I had no heart to do it until you gave up the drink. I have often thought of it before, but I was persuaded that, should I do it, some stranger would pluck the fruit. Now this cot will be ours, and we and our children may expect to enjoy it. We shall pluck the roses, eat the fruit, and buy our boots and shoes of J. A. Robinson & Co., 61 Market street."

Meritorious.
'Tis not by vain pomp and show that the immortal Grant has attained his high degree of position, and the undivided esteem of every loyal American. 'Twas not by any array of titles showered upon him by illustrious antecedents that the great and good Washington became first in the hearts of his countrymen. 'Tis worth and merit that gave the position, the title, the regard, the favor, the esteem and all such coveted qualities. Likewise 'tis worth and merit that have given the high standard of his profession that Dr. George W. Spencer now occupies. By a visit to the Doctor's really beautiful rooms, 254 Penn street, any one will be convinced of his proficiency in dentistry to see the large amount of business done by him, and in every instance satisfactory to his patients. Dr. S. is honored and esteemed by all for the vast amount of good he has done to the public, and he is prepared to continue his good work in the saving of damaged teeth or in supplying new sets where the old ones have become worthless. 254 Penn street is the place.—Pitts. Leader, Sept. 2, 1866.

Where to Obtain a Fair Picture.
That Pittsburgh excels in turning out heavy guns, massive castings and heavy pieces of iron and steel ready for the purposes of the industrial arts, cannot be denied. But there is another thing in which we lead our contemporary cities, and that is in fine specimens of the art photographic. The really beautiful gems of that branch of the fine arts, which are upon exhibition at Dabb's palatial rooms and windows on St. Clair street, will fully bear us out in the assertion. The specimens are finer than the far famed pictures of Brady Gutekunst, and others who have established a national reputation upon their execution of remarkably clear 'sun shadows." Mr. Dabb's thoroughly understands every department of his business, and takes especial care that every picture which leaves his house shall bear the imprint of superiority and sustain his high reputation as an artist. If any of our friends are desirous of obtaining a photograph of any size or style, we can safely recommend them to favor this establishment with a call. It is No. 26 St Clair street.

The War in Paraguay.

New York, Sept. 14.—Latest advices from Rio Janeiro army correspondents affirm that the allied army has lost nearly one-half their numbers since they invaded Paraguay, and have not advanced toward the capital of the Republic more than seven miles. There are six thousand sick at Corrientes, two thousand in and about the camp, and about fifteen hundred at different points down the river as far Monteirdes.

The small-pox and intermittent fever are the diseases most prevalent in the allied army.

Almost all hopes are now given up of Admiral Tamandare being able to attack Curapaity simultaneously with the army. The river is full of all kinds of obstructions, and the water is beginning to fall again. The Paraguayans continue to sink torpedoes down the river, and so keep the fleet busy fishing these monsters. Many of them have exploded, but at too great a distance from the ships to do any injury. In handling these torpedoes the Paraguayans are not only very ingenious, but very daring. But a few weeks ago a torpedo was discovered early one morning made fast to a chain of the iron-clad Bahia. They had placed it there during the night without their presence being suspected. Fortunately for the iron-clad, the torpedo had sprung a leak and became useless.

Grant and Farragut Declare Themselves.

New York, Sept. 14.—A special to the Tribune, dated Columbus, Ohio, September 13, says:

"In conversation with General Cox, last evening, General Grant and Admiral Farragut declared their disapproval of the President's policy, and commended that of Congress. Both gentlemen said substantially that they were participants in the President's campaign tour by express instructions, and not from any inclination on their part. The conversation was not strictly private, for several parties were present."

Resignation of Directors—Release of Fenian Prisoners.

Toronto, C. W., Sept. 14.—Four of the Directors of the Georgian Bay Canal have resigned, being dissatisfied with the proceedings of the company.

Seven Fenian prisoners, captured at Fort Erie in June last, have been released on their own recognizance, there being no evidence to warrant their further detion.

Grand Mass Meeting at Meadville.

Meadville, (Pa.,) Sept. 14.—A grand mass meeting of the Republican party of Crawford county, was held here to-day to ratify the nomination of General Geary for Governor. The meeting was addressed by General J. W. Geary, Governor A. G. Curtin, and Colonel Saml. McKee, of Kentucky. This evening the meeting was addressed by Hon. G. A. Grow and others.

AWFUL CALAMITY.

A Bridge Falls, Precipitating Hundreds of People.

THREE HUNDRED INJURED AND SIX DEAD

President Johnson Contributes to the Relief of the Sufferers.

NAMES OF KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Johnstown, (Pa.,) Sept. 14, 1866.

This community was thrown into a deep gloom this morning by the most terrible accident which has ever occurred here. There was naturally a great anxiety on the part of the citizens here to catch a glimpse of the President as he passed through the town, and from early morning the people—men, women and children—gathered at the depot and adjoining places to obtain favorable positions to see the Presidential parties. At the bridge which covers the bed of the old canal the crowd was immense. Indeed many thoughtful persons advised the parties upon the structure of its incapacity to hold such a weight, but unfortunately the warning was disregarded. Just as the train bearing the President and his party entered the station there was a sudden strain on the bridge, upon which at this time there were assembled fully two thousand souls, from everybody pushing forward to get nearer the train. The bridge suddenly gave way and went crashing down to the bed of the canal, precipitating the unfortunate beings who occupied it over twenty feet. The scene which followed beggars description. The President and his party were forgotten and everybody's attention was engaged upon the fearful wreck at the bridge. Cries of bitter agony from men, women and children who were under the debris of broken timbers and flooring of the bridge were heard, and friends looked anxiously among the wounded for their wives, children, husbands, brothers and fathers. The scene was awful. The presidential train started a few minutes after, amid the cries and wails of the wounded and dying. No attention was paid to the departure, so wild was the excitement which attended the accident. Within a short time the dead and wounded were got from out of the ruins and laid in the station house, and some were conveyed to their homes. In the great excitement which prevails here, I cannot furnish you with all the names of the persons killed. I have the names of over three hundred who are more or less injured. Some have both legs and arms broken and bruised, others heads contused, others backs broken, and others skulls fractured. The loss of life from the sad occurrence will prove fearful, and I hardly dare make any estimate, since the injuries of the great majority of those reported fatally injured may prove greatly exaggerated.

Welsh; Michael Bowen, contusions; Henry Huddrich, seriously; Louisa Hawker, severely; Mrs. Charles Miller, ribs, ex-Sheriff Buck, bruised severely; Henry Thiece, arm broken; Henry Wireman, arm broken; Patrick Nevin, severely; John Kraft, bruised severely; Mrs. McDonald and two children; H. S. Peelor, D. Cramer, Charles Randolph, Emma Coy, Samuel Mansell, Andrew Greenwood, Jos. Shoemaker, Geo. Klacker, W. H. Campbell, J. McNulty, Phineas Watson, James Diamond, Michael McNeily, all slightly; Evan Jones, breast and leg; Patrick Owens, leg broken; Elijah Butler, leg, slightly.

By order of Gen. Grant, a surgeon on the train remained behind. Several surgeons from neighboring towns are now here.

Physicians have arrived from all parts of the State, and the wounded are receiving the best of care and attention.

The sorrow caused by the sad affair is universal, and the town wears a gloomy aspect.

With commendable thought and liberality, President Johnson forwarded five hundred dollars as a personal donation, to be applied to the necessities of the wounded. The contribution was forwarded from Altoona.

The accident was wholly the result of overcrowding the structure. Fully five hundred persons were carried with it to the ground beneath.

A physician states that fifty persons may die from among the injured, but I think he overestimated the number.

In collecting the above names I was greatly assisted by Jas. M. Swank, Esq., editor of the Johnstown Tribune.

The Tariff—Letter of Secretary McCulloch—Tax on Liquor—Gen. Howard and the Enslaved Freedmen—Conscience Money—Railroad Arrangements for the Pittsburgh Convention.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The following letter of instructions respecting the tariff has been addressed by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Commissioner of the Revenue in regard to the proposed revision of the tariff at the next session of Congress:

Washington, Sept. 10, 1866.

To Hon. David W. Welles, United States Commissioner of Revenue—Sir: In view of the fact that the revision of the tariff is certain to engage the attention of Congress at the next session, I consider it especially desirable that the Treasury Department should be prepared to furnish as much information pertinent to the subject, as can be obtained and collected within the limited time available for the necessary investigations. You are, therefore, hereby instructed to give the subject of the revision of the tariff especial attention and to report a bill which, if approved by Congress, will be a substitute for all acts imposing customs duties, and which will render the administration of this branch of the revenue system more ample, economical and effective. In the discharge of this duty you will consider the necessity of providing for a large, certain and permanent revenue, keeping in view the fact that the existing tariff has proved most effective in this direction. You will, therefore, endeavor first to secure for the Government a revenue commensurate for its necessities, and secondly to propose such modifications of the Tariff laws now in force as will better adjust and equalize the duties on foreign imports with the internal taxes upon home productions. If this last result can be obtained without detriment to the revenue by reducing taxation upon raw materials and the machinery of home productions rather than by increasing the rates of imports, it would, in my opinion, by decreasing the cost of production and increasing the productive power of wages, greatly promote the interests of the whole country.

In the prosecution of this work, you are authorized to call upon any officer of the revenue for such information as you may require and he may be able to furnish.

I am, with great respect, very truly yours,
H. McCulloch,
Secretary of the Treasury.

It is understood that the officer of the Commissioner of the United States Revenue will be at the New York Custom House during the month of October.

With regard to the tax upon payments made to mechanics or laborers employed upon public works, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue decides that the terms "mechanics and laborers" were used by Congress in their general and popular sense; that they were not designed by Congress to include clerks, draughtsmen, &c., but such persons only as are generally known as mechanics or laborers, such as carpenters, bricklayers, machinists, etc. The operation of the internal revenue law exempting such workmen from the provisions of the act is limited to such mechanics and laborers as are employed in the construction of public works and those employed in public works or at public works.

The Sixty-Second Reunion.

The ball of the gallant Sixty-Second last evening, at Wilkins Hall, was a splendid success in every respect. In the first place the hall had been very handsomely decorated. At the end opposite the door the magnificent silken banner of the Sixty-Second was hung, surmounted by a very handsome national shield. On either side of the banner was festooned a large and beautiful flag. It was eminently fitting that a banner bearing such a record as the record of this regiment should be illuminated by the stars of the most beautiful flag that any nation bears.

The company assembled at the hall was a large and select one. About two hundred couples tripped the light fantastic over the floor. The assemblage was brilliant, the music most excellent, and everything passed off as pleasant and as satisfactorily as could be desired.

At about twelve o'clock the company repaired to Kennedy's dining hall on Smithfield street, where a rich and tempting repast had been prepared for them. After having done the amplest justice to Mr. Kennedy's chef d'œuvre they returned to the hall and kept up the gaiety till the "wee sma' hours."

Boys in Blue of the Ninth Ward.

The Ninth ward Boys in Blue held a meeting last evening at Independence Hall, Lieutenant Fred. Metzgar and Sergeant James Mackrell, Secretaries. The meeting was addressed by Captain Samuel Harper, Captain Jacob F. Slagle and Rev. E. McGraw, who were received with loud applause. The following delegates were appointed to attend the Convention on the twenty-fifth instant:

Capt. L. D. Spruce, Sergeant John F. Rawley, Private Wm. Clark.

The following were appointed as Executive and Finance Committee: Captain L. D. Spruce, Captain Samuel T. Paisley, Sergeant J. M. Roberts.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers, after which the meeting adjourned to meet at the same place on Wednesday evening next.

Union Republican Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the "Boys in Blue" at the Second Ward School-house, Allegheny City, on Monday evening at half past seven o'clock. Let no one forget the place or hour, and let the brave boys who have stood by the country in its hour of need show that they are still opposed to treason and traitors. Eminent speakers will address the meeting. There will also be meetings held this evening at the corner of Beaver and Locust streets, Manchester, and at the store of S. Ballantine, Temperanceville. At the former place Hon. Thomas Williams and Colonel T. M. Bayne will speak, and at the latter John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., and Thomas M. Marshall, Esq. Let there be no hesitancy, but let freemen turn out in such numbers as will terrify our opponents.

Robbery in Peebles Township.—Some person or persons, as yet unknown, entered the stable of James Stimple in Peebles township, on Thursday night, and took from there a lady's saddle, a carriage whip and a bridle, the whole valued at about eighteen dollars. Tracks were found leading from the stable through a meadow to the bank of the Monongahela river, and from this fact it is presumed the thieves crossed the river with their booty. Mr. Stimple will remunerate any person furnishing him with information that would lead to the detection of the guilty parties.

An Officer in a Scrape.—Hannah Gallagher, living on Liberty street, yesterday made information before Alderman Strain, charging policeman J. M. Sarber with assault and battery. It is alleged that the officer had a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Gallagher. He found her at work and she requested permission to put on her shoes. He refused and dragged her out of the house and along the street. Hence the suit. He was held to bail for a further hearing.

Gave Bail.—Annie Jones came to the office of Alderman Taylor yesterday and made oath against Margaret Snyder for surety of the peace. The accused was arrested, but released on furnishing bail in $300 for a hearing on Monday.

Pittsburgh Methodism—Smithfield Street M. E. Church.

Early Methodism in this city and this well-known church are closely allied, it being the second church built of that denomination in this city; indeed, it might be properly called the first, as the small structure erected several years previous was destroyed by fire, and the site is now occupied by a warehouse. The pleasant associations which cluster around this hallowed place are numerous.

History shows that the first sermon delivered by a Methodist minister was preached by Rev. Charles Conaway in 1788. In 1810 the first regular church edifice was erected on Front street, near Smithfield. For many years it was occupied after two or three other Methodist churches were built. Finally, it passed into the hands of the African Methodist Episcopal Church congregation, now worshipping on Wylie street. During the great fire of 1845 it was consumed, and the site is now used for business purposes.

Seven years afterwards, in 1817, the Methodists purchased ground in what it was supposed would be a central location, upon which the Smithfield street church was erected. The old church edifice was rather an old fashioned affair, and yet in its day was fully up with the ordinary styles of architecture then observed. It stood full thirty years. But the necessity for re-building became so apparent and peremptory that the congregation, under the direction of Rev. Dr. Cox, pastor, undertook its re-building in 1848. The people having a mind to work, and having the sympathy of sister Methodist churches, the work was done that year.

During the period ranging from 1817 to 1848, the congregation has been served by some very eminent ministers. The corner-stone of the first church on this site was laid during the pastorate of Rev. Andrew Hemphill. Among the gifted ministers who have been identified with this charge were Rev. Samuel Davis, Rev. H. B. Bascom,—afterwards a Bishop in the M. E. Church South, Rev. R. Tydings, Rev. Asa Shinn, Dr. Charles Elliott, Dr. Martin Ruter, Rev. M. Simpson,—now Bishop, and Rev. George S. Holmes,—father of the present pastor.

Since the church has been rebuilt in 1848, the following ministers have been in pastoral charge, in the order they are named: Rev. Wm. Cox, D. D., Rev. S. E. Babcock, Dr. H. J. Clark, Rev. W. F. Lauck, Dr. W. A. Davidson, Rev. W. Cox, D. D., (second term of two years.) Rev. H. Sinsabaugh, Rev. J. W. Baker, Rev. A. H. Thomas, and Rev. C. A. Holmes, the present pastor.

At the time the church was rebuilt in 1848, the plain style of architecture prevailed generally. Without being showy it was plain and substantial. The congregation having determined to paint the church inside and outside and otherwise improve it, some needed alterations and changes were undertaken. The outside has been neatly painted a stone color, and the woodwork in the interior has been varnished and tastefully oaked. The ceiling and inside walls have been exquisitely frescoed, the design being extremely beautiful and appropriate. The stairway on both sides leading up to the main audience room has been changed and rendered easy of ascent. Additional lights have been introduced, so as to increase the body of light. Each pew is supplied with hymn books placed in bronzed racks. A door has been inserted immediately back of the pulpit for the convenience of ministers officiating. The church has been elegantly carpeted throughout with Brussels carpet, and the altar and pulpit with new furniture.

The Church having puchased the building in the rear of the alley, it has been fitted up on the second floor for Sunday-school and class rooms. These enlarged facilities, in connection with the large lecture-room and class-rooms on the first floor of the Church, will give better accommodations for the charge. It is expected the whole cost will be about four thousand dollars. Much credit is due to Dr. Holmes for his labors in this improvement.

The opening services to-morrow will be very interesting—occupying morning, afternoon and night. The pastor, Dr. Holmes, will be assisted by the Rev. Thos. M. Hudson, who was pastor of the Church over thirty years ago, and Rev. Dr. W. Cox who was in charge of the congregation when the Church was rebuilt in 1848.

Amusements.

To-night Miss Lucille Western closes one of the most brilliant engagements ever filled by any artiste in this city. The houses have been a perfect jam during her stay, and her audiences have been composed of the very cream of our society. If Miss Western does not rank with the first actresses in the country, she is beyond question the greatest living exponent of the emotional drama. Her Lady Isabel and Madame Vine in the dramatization of Mrs. Wood's novel of East Lynne, places her so far ahead of all competitors in this role that she may claim it as her own. She is in this what Rachel is in Phedra, or Cushman in Meg Merrilies—superb. To-night we are forced to bid her adieu. She appears for the last time as Nancy Sykes in "Oliver Twist."

On Monday the Williams appear in favorite characters.

Last night the pleasing and petite Ettie Henderson took a benefit at the Theatre, appearing in the historical play of Frederick the Great to a good house. Miss Henderson is too well known among our theatre-goers to need commendation from us. She is always up in her part, dresses well, sings well, and has a clear conception of the requirements of the character she assumes. To-night she closes her engagement. There will be a matinee at this house at two o'clock to-day.

The Academy of Music was comfortably filled last night and the night previous with a respectable audience. On the former occasion Miss Hattie De Lee, the beautiful Manageress, appeared in the difficult character of Camille. To say she performed the character to perfection would be to say that which is not so, but, considering all she had to contend with, among which was a weak stock, she played it very well, much better than we expected. In a different line of characters, such as light and easy comedy, Miss De Lee might yet make a reputation as an actress. Miss Kate Estelle played Madeline, in St. Mary's Eve, last evening in a style pleasing to all. Possessed with a good stage presence and a voice like Stentor she cannot fail to make her mark in the profession. She belongs to the Waller school of actresses, and in many respects resembles that lady.

At Trimble's Varieties crowded houses is the order of the day, or rather evening. The stock embraces some of the very best artistes in their respective lines. Among them are Miss Nellie Taylor, Susie Summerfield, H. M. Fitzgerald and a host of others. The programme nightly offered is immense, consisting of singing, dancing, negro excentricities and a melo drama well calculated to please the patrons of the house. Managers Aims and Smythe are always on the alert and cannot fail in succeeding.

To Prevent Disease.

The celebrated Doctor Aberenthy advocated the policy of keeping the head cool and the feet warm as the most sure preventive of disease. Those who have a thorough knowledge of anatomy and the peculiar effect damp feet have upon the system, fully coincide with him in this theory of prevention, and strongly urge upon us the necessity of having our pedal appendages comfortable if we would escape the thousand ills and aches that flesh is heir to.

Now that the cool gray autumn days are on us, and the more intense cold of winter is fast approaching, it behooves us to provide ourselves with a good durable pair of boots or shoes. Where to get them at the most reasonable prices is the first question of the domestic economist. Our city has many first class shoe houses, but none superior to that of James Robb, No. 89 Market street. Here can be found coverings for the feet of all descriptions, quality and style, from the heavy brogan, noted for its durability, to the elegant and delicate white kid and neat morocco. Mr. Robb has just returned from a protracted business visit to the east, where he has purchased an immense stock, consisting of gents fine calf boots, heavy kip brogans, ladies' and gentlemen's balmorals, and ladies' fine lasting gaiters. Mr. Robb has secured those goods at the lowest cash prices and of course will be able to sell at figures that will compete with any other house in the city.

At the Wake.

Our readers know of the death of Patrick Neeson, near the Soho Bridge, and know also the tribulations of the Coroner and his jury on the occasion of the inquest. The scenes of that time were far surpassed, however, at the wake on the same night. There seems to have been a general row at that grand festival. Catherine Gallagher and her husband, Cummins Norton and his wife, Mary and Patrick Lyney, neighbors of the deceased, were among the guests, and, of course, participated unlimitedly in the accompanying disturbance. The two Nortons and Lyney pitched at Mr. Gallagher more particularly than at any body else, and eventually got the better of him, in spite of his wife's endeavors. They carried their advantage so far, that poor Gallagher had his leg broken in two places, and is now lying at home in great suffering. His wife made information before Alderman Strain, charging the two Nortons and Lyney with aggravated assault and battery. The parties were arrested and had a partial hearing yesterday. Lyney was held to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars for a further hearing. In default of a similar amount of bail Mr. and Mrs. Norton were committed.

Dress Goods.

Among the many establishments which presents a beautiful display of goods to the passer by, there is none in the city that can surpass that of our friends Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street. We are not now crusty the old batchelor, or how remorsely the miser, he cannot pass the windows of that establishment, and look thereon without seeing something that he would fain see upon some lady friend of his—for all have friends—and forthwith he goes in and purchases. And then it appears to be the meeting place for all the handsome ladies in the city. On several occasions while in search of items, we have been attracted to the place by the crowd, and upon inquiry would find that it was only a crowd looking at the fine goods, and at the—ladies. Bates & Bell have a reputation for selling fine goods at the lowest prices, which they are bound to sustain. We do not ask any one to take our word for it, but go and see for yourselves.

Acknowledgment.—The remarkably clear and correct report in this journal yesterday of the President's speech, was kindly furnished by George W. Dithridge, Esq., than whom there is no more reliable Phonographic reporter in the Union. Mr. Dithridge is engaged in manufacturing business in this city, and applied his talents in this particular case to aid the Gazette in furnishing its readers with a reliable verbatim report of Andrew Johnson's speech, as he felt the importance of placing every word the man uttered, fairly before the people. We return Mr. Dithridge our sincere thanks.

Get the Best—They Always Give Satisfaction.

Every week, Dr. Quincy A. Scott is called upon to insert Artificial Teeth in cases where other dentists have tried, been paid, and failed, and in every case his work gives entire satisfaction. He is quite an artist in his line of business, and has merely to examine a case know how to articulate the teeth so that they will present a handsome and natural appearance, and will masticate the food thoroughly.

His prices are lower than those of any dentist in the city, and he will guarantee his work to be superior. So it would better for any of our readers who are in want of teeth, to call upon the Dr. in the first place, and thereby save their time and money. We would also assure those persons who are suffering with diseased and unsightly teeth that they can have them extracted without any pain whatever, by calling upon Dr. Scott. He has extracted for over ten thousand persons within the last seven years, and among this large number there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can refer to numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited in renewed health. He extracts numbers daily by the new "Rhigolene or Vapor" process, and gives pure Laughing Gas to those who desire it, without charge. He makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered, and gives a full set on Vulcanite, with beautiful gums, for eight dollars. Remember his number, 278 Penn street third door above Hand.

ANDREW JOHNSON IN PITTSBURGH.

We gave, in the GAZETTE of yesterday morning, a very full report of the President's visit to this city—of his reception by the people miscellaneously, and of what was said and done at the banquet at the St. Charles hotel, prepared by his special friends and admirers. Although we have no admiration for the political sentiments of these latter gentlemen, yet they are entitled to credit for having done what they could to please their idol, and the great dispenser of "bread and butter," handsomely. Moreover, they deserve our thanks for giving Mr. JOHNSON an opportunity to rehearse his piece and "swing round the circle" at his leisure. And, by the way, we claim some credit for giving to the world, through the columns of the GAZETTE, a full, accurate and verbatim report of his speech at this banquet, which was the longest if not the best that he has ever made on the subject of "my policy." We desire that it be carefully read and pondered; for it may be taken as the very best that "I" can do. In another place we shall make a remark or two upon the only passage in the long and rambling effort which really touches the great question before the country.

Of his reception by the crowd in the street, which, we confess, was not very flattering, we have only to say, that if any man, no matter who he may be, will coarsely denounce as "traitors" all who differ with him in the matter of his loose and dangerous policy—a policy of which every rebel and copperhead in the country is the ardent supporter—and proclaim that he is now on this end of the line "fighting" those traitors, he must expect some rough manifestations of popular displeasure; and there is not a city in the Union where he would be more likely to meet with such demonstrations than in Pittsburgh. If some of our people insulted him, it was but tit for tat—he first insulted them. They gave him some words, and other not very complimentary utterances, on Thursday evening; but on the evening of Tuesday October 9, he may look out for something more substantial than words.

THE ERIE MEETING

Was one of those vast and enthusiastic demonstrations that attest the faith and loyalty of the Republican masses. The evening before it was held the sky became overcast, settling first to a dull leaden hue, and then to a blackness as deep as that which settled down over doomed Egypt. Soon it began to rain. A few scattering drops fell. Presently there was a copious shower. Then it seemed as if the windows of heaven were opened, and the fountains of water were unloosed. Vast sheets of it descended, striking with prodigious force, and swaying hither and thither with a wierd noise.

When the morning dawned, the streets stood in immense pools of water. Heavy masses of drifting clouds gave token that the storm was not over, and fears were generally felt that the elements were only resting preparatory to another onset. Still the arrangements for the meeting went on. Members of the working committees exchanged depressed looks and dismal prognostications, but they kept at work. About nine o'clock delegations began to arrive from the surrounding territory. Speedily the streets presented the aspect of a moving mass of vehicles, horses and pedestrians. At eleven o'clock the procession was formed, and a magnificent one it proved. It absolutely filled all the streets. The city appeared too small to hold the grand demonstration. An immense sea of banners, flags, mottoes, and decorations surged everywhere, while cannon and military bands filled the whole atmosphere with inspiriting sound.

The storm that had been hanging out its signals all the while, at this point made an attempt to gain the mastery. Over the lake arose great masses of clouds, while the winds drove directly upon the city. It looked as if the procession would be driven, baffled and dripping from the streets. But, fortunately, a counter current of wind set in from the west, and forced the clouds towards the east. A mile away the rain was seen descending in torrents. As the torn edges of the clouds flew past, some drops came down, and this was the last for the remainder of the day.

When the head of the procession reached the Public Square, where the speaking stands had been erected, the whole space was nearly filled with people, and there appeared to be no room for the great throng behind. The democrats and conservatives, with dejected countenances, looked on amazed. Such a majestic outpouring of the people; such terrible earnestness, and so unconquerable a determination not to relinquish voluntarily the first points of the great struggle, and not to be defrauded out of them, they had not anticipated.

Nor was the character of the speaking less significant. There was a comprehen[illegible] the issues as they stand; a force of [illegible]ment; a closeness of analysis; a legiti[illegible] deduction; a frank marching up [illegible] conclusions; which we have [illegible]d. Not only did the speak[illegible] [illegible]he case; the people under[illegible] [illegible]d countenances, but with [illegible] looked all probable con[illegible] [illegible]ce, resolved that what[illegible] [illegible]bors might be needful [illegible]ment and impartial lib[illegible] [illegible]rafty intrigues, deep con[illegible] force, should be willingly [illegible] be regarded as a grand inau[illegible] of the political campaign in [W]estern Pennsylvania. A powerful [o]fficial influence will go out from thi[s]

Grand Council of Freemen. Its first effect will be to appall the weak or treacherous men who are seeking to defeat the Republican candidate for Congress; next to enlist such co-operation in his behalf as will increase his majority this Fall over what it was two years ago, and then to swell that flood of popular enthusiasm which is surely bearing General GEARY into the gubernatorial chair.

A REMARKABLE ARTICLE.

The New York Herald is a remarkable journal in many respects, but in nothing is it more remarkable than for the almost unerring sagacity with which it throws itself into the very middle of the strongest current of popular opinion. It matters not in what direction that current may set, it floats with it, and with an apparent impulse that would make a stranger suppose that it never varied its course.

While the controversy between the President and Congress seemed to be uncertain as to the issue, the Herald lay to, or tacked about, merely to gain time and be ready as soon as the result should appear certain. Had the Philadelphia August Convention been a political success, the Herald would have been a leading Conservative journal; but what it now thinks of the party born there will be seen in the article below. It is certainly an able one, and presents the momentous issue now before the country clearly and fairly. We commend it particularly to the consideration of our "Conservative" fellow-citizens.

THE RECENT AND THE COMING ELECTIONS —THE PROSPECTS.

It is a historical axiom that revolutions never go backwards. Its truth has been affirmed in the great political events of this country since the adjournment of Congress, and especially in the recent State elections. It was reasonable to suppose that the Jacobinical violence, recklessness and ferocity of such political reformers as Ben Butler in the East, Senator Chandler in the West, and Parson Brownlow in the South, would have a damaging effect upon their party when brought to judgment before the people; but it is strikingly apparent from the result of the late elections in Maine that the popular mind is controlled by larger questions, against which the sayings or doings of this or that fanatical politician go for nothing. That great body of the American people to which we are indebted for the suppression of the most formidable rebellion in the history of mankind, are evidently determined to have substantial securities for the future before they pronounce the good work of the restoration of the Union complete—that, in short, Southern reconstruction shall rest upon the solid foundation of the federal constitution, regardless of the disturbing forces of radicals, copperheads, rebels, ruffians or fanatics, north or south.

From the elections which have occurred since the Constitutional amendment was adopted by Congress for the reconstruction of the Southern States, we are satisfied that that amendment is to become the basis of Southern restoration—that it will carry and be carried by all the Northern State elections yet to come, and that with New Jersey leading off it will be ratified by them all and become part and parcel of the supreme law of the land. Nor have we any fear of the consequences. There is nothing, after all, so very objectionable in this amendment — nothing which President Johnson himself has not at one time or another, recommended to some Southern State or to Congress, and nothing upon which there should have been a disagreement between the President and Congress. Let us for a moment look at this amendment again. It provides:

First—That all persons born or naturalized in the United States are citizens thereof, and of the States in which they reside, and on a footing of equality in regard to their civil rights.

Second—That the enumeration of the people for representation in Congress shall be abridged in proportion to the abridgment of the right of suffrage—males above the age of twenty-one years—in any State on account of race or color.

Third—That a large schedule of persons, civil and military, engaged in the late rebellion, shall be ineligible to any federal office hereafter until absolved by a two-thirds vote of each House of Congress.

Fourth—That the national war debt shall be held sacred, and that all rebel debts and obligations shall be utterly repudiated and held illegal and void.

Fifth—That Congress shall have power to enforce the provisions of this article.

This amendment is the reconstruction plan and platform of Congress, and there is no good reason, we say, why it should not have been adopted also by the President, inasmuch as he stands committed in some shape to all its provisions. It is not the platform of Thaddeus Stevens, Sumner or any of the noisy radicals of Congress. They can do nothing. It was adopted against their remonstrances and in spite of their threats. It embodies substantially, in fact, the President's original programme, and if carried in these coming October and November elections—as we predict it will be, from Massachusetts and New York westward—we trust that the administration, in deference to the will of the people, will come back to it. Why not? Surely this amendment engrafted upon the Constitution will be amply sufficient for the restoration of the Union, internal peace, sectional harmony and the security of the government and the Treasury for many generations to come, against all disturbing factions of either section. Parson Brownlow, in leading off with the State of Tennessee for the ratification, has shown that a good thing may be done by a bad man and for a bad motive; but that Tennessee should thus lead off for this amendment is a very remarkable and significant fact—that New Jersey should next follow is almost as strange; but from good or bad designs, thus started, the amendment will surely go through.

The President's quarrel and rupture with Congress was an unfortunate mistake. From recent events, South and North, it is clear that it will prove a fatal blunder to his Administration, unless he abandons it as the issue before the people. The old contests in England between King and Parliament are full of instruction on this subject. Had Mr. Johnson taken our friendly advice, and made the distinguishing features of his administration a vigorous foreign policy and a sound financial system, he might ere this have become as popular a President as Andrew Jackson. He has yet a fair field before him in which to retrieve his misfortunes. Let him begin de novo, by a reconstruction of his Cabinet, beginning with his particular marplot, the Secretary of State; and let him give us a Cabinet and a policy, foreign and domestic, shaped to meet the exigencies of the day and the developments of public opinion, and his administration may still become universally acceptable and gloriously successful. We speak to him as a friend, and, we think, in the voice of the people.

—Just before the death of Dean Richmond, he traveled down the Hudson river on the boat of his name, on which the furniture, linen, crockery, &c., is labeled with the vessel's title. He met on board Theodore Tilton, and the following conversation ensued:

"Well, Tilton, you know what I think of your sort of men—you fanatics. You only seek notoriety; want to see your name in print; you radicals like to attract attention; ought to be strung up—strung up!"

"Rather severe," was the reply. "But really, Dean," glancing about the parlor, and suiting the gesture to the illustration, "I don't know of any radical who cares enough about notoriety to see his name painted on a steamboat, or engraved upon a spittoon!"

—Eminent Catholic clergymen are already arriving in New York from the Pacific coast, to attend the Second National Catholic Council, which is to be held in Baltimore during October, and over which Archbishop Spalding has been delegated by the Pope to preside. The object of this Council is to regulate the discipline of the Church in this country, and to arrange some systematic plan for the education of Catholic youth. Forty-one bishops and other prelates, and one hundred priests, will take part in the deliberations.

—The British mint has ceased to coin half-crowns for some years past. In like manner the four penny piece is made to give place to the three penny, no coin of the former denomination appearing in the returns since March 11, 1865.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Mrs. Farragut, wife of the great Admiral, is the handsomest woman in the Presidential excursion party. She is a Virginian and her maiden name was Virginia Loyal.

—A man named De Canine, who was run over by a train at Elizabeth, N. J., and mortally injured, was, at his own solicitation, shot through the head, his sufferings being past endurance.

—Wm. F. Brittingham, sentenced by court-martial to confinement for three years in the Virginia Penitentiary, for murdering a negro, has been discharged by the Mayor of Richmond.

—A case of leprosy is under treatment in the hospital at Richmond, a negro, living in a filthy locality, contracting the disease by bad habits. Some alarm exists among the freedmen in consequence.

—A family, consisting of nine persons, were poisoned at Atlanta from having eaten some pastry made of self-raising flour. Their whole bodies turned to a dull, blue color, but all are in a fair way of recovery.

—Henry Rhelkein, at New Orleans, recently forged checks upon the Citizens' Bank of that city, in the name of his employers, Francke & Daneel, to the amount of $4,200, and escaped north. $1,000 reward is offered for his apprehension.

—On Friday night, James McCue, during a quarrel with his wife, threw her out of the second story window of their residence, on Main street, New York. She was picked up insensible, with her skull fractured, and her recovery is very improbable.

—The Great Council of the United States of the Improved Order of Red Men, now in annual session in Baltimore, have elected the following officers for the next term: W. G. Incohonee, Joshua Maris, of Delaware; W. G. S. Sagamore, John D. Moore, of New Jersey; W. G. J. Sagamore, John B. Shaner, of Virginia; W. G. S. of Records, M. H. Graham, of Pennsylvania; W. G. K. of Wampum, William Benson of Maryland; W. G. Prophet, Wm. R. McFarlane, of Delaware; W. G. Tocakon, of District of Columbia; G. W. Minewa, G. W. Lindsay, of Maryland.

CHLOSMA, OR MOTCH PATCH.—This is a disease which appears in the face, neck and trunk, and often appears on the forehead in a single patch, which gradually extends, and it has been generally considered that these moth patches, freckles and other discolorations of the skin could not be removed. But recent discoveries prove that the past system of treating diseases of the cuticle was not a correct one, and Dr. B. C. Perry has prepared a Moth and Freckle Lotion, which will infallibly remove all discolorations without injury to either the texure or the color of the skin. It is a scientific compound, and this gentleman being a practical Dermatologist, his acquaintance with cutaneous disorders has enabled him successfully to control this obstinate affection. Sold by all druggists.—N. Y. Times.

METAPHYSICAL DISCOVERY,
Price, $4,00.
Offices—410 Arch St., Philadelphia,
51 Bond Street, New York.

No boring with instruments.
No blowing in the ears.
No snuffing up the nostrils or introducing wires.
No pouring medicines down the throat.
The METAPHYSICAL DISCOVERY will reach every spot that drugs and instruments will reach, and thousands of places besides.
Truth is mighty and must prevail; error is pregnated with death—consequently must sooner or later sink into oblivion.

ARE YOU PREJUDICED!
In consequence of the prejudice existing against patent medicines, it is my earnest desire that my Metaphysical Discovery should not be received or classed with patent medicines of the age. You ask me why? I answer, because it is a scientific specialty, differing in application, tendencies and results, from all other remedies and preparations which have ever gone before it. And further, because the Metaphysical Discovery is the result of inherited power to trace effects to their first cause; therefore let it be understood that the Metaphysical Discovery is not only the result of inherited power, but also the result of a life of rare philosophical research, and that too, in an unbeaten track.

Eyes, and They See Not.
Awake, ye slumbering world and behold yourselves and your children in the prison house of disease, from the cradle to the grave, betake yourselves to thought—think and live. The world writhes in pain and passes into untimely graves. Mark, learn, that your friends die through experimenting on. Every effect driven is a death blow to the physical system. I have never met an individual who was treated for anything but effect. There are many agonizing hearts, sorrowful homes and grassy graves through the use of instruments which torture, and medicines which destroy the system.
The Discovery consists of three distinct preparations, which pass into the system by absorption through the Eyes, Ears and Scalp.
It is packed in a neat wooden case, and will be sent to any address in the world, on receipt of the above price.

CERTIFICATES OF CURES.
I, S. C. Chase, of Cambridgeport, Mass., do certify that I have been troubled with a bad catarrh for upwards of thirty years. I obtained Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery, and in ten minutes after using it found relief. I have used the medicine faithfully, and believe it went to the root of my disease. I feel as if catarrh was eradicated from my system, the foul effects of the sad disease having ceased. My wife also has been suffering from a complication of diseases. On using the Discovery, clotted blood and matter rushed from her head, and she found immediate relief, and has been gaining health ever since. We heartily recommend the Metaphysical Discovery to all who suffer.

CURE OF CATARRH, ASTHMA, &c.
Mrs. Cheever, residing at No. 6 Allen street, Boston, Mass., says: "I have been troubled for years with asthma, catarrh, and sore throat. I suffered from continual pain and dizziness in my head, cold feet, &c.; for eight years could not attend to my household duties, and had despaired of ever being cured. Providentially learning of Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery, I obtained it. The result is, I am entirely cured, and determined to keep a box of it always in my house."

MRS. GEORGE VAUGHN'S CERTIFICATE, OF MALDEN MASS.
This is to certify that I have suffered for ten years from dyspepsia, catarrh, and a complication of diseases. For the past year I have been restless, and could not sleep at night. So exhausted had I become, that I was unable to do my household duties. I became so cold that it seemed impossible to keep warm. For sometime my eyes were very much diseased, and my hearing dull. Myself and friends considered me in Consumption. In this state I heard of Mrs. M. G. Brown and obtained the Metaphysical Discovery. I have used one box faithfully, and no language can tell the benefit received from it. My eyes have become clear and strong. My dyspepsia is entirely gone. I can now do my own work, and feel altogether a new being. My friends say I am gaining flesh. I know as I was I could not have lived. I feel grateful to God for the benefit I have received. I recommend Mrs. M. G. Brown and her mode of treatment to all who suffer as I have done.

CATARRH CURED.—MR. JEROME A. O'CONNOR, OF OLD CAMBRIDGE.
This is to certify that I have been troubled with a bad catarrh for the last [illegible] years. [illegible] winter it became [illegible] I was [illegible] to rise at night, [illegible] suffocated me. I obtained Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery some weeks back, used it faithfully, and my catarrh began to give way at once. I now consider myself a cured young man, being entirely delivered from that terrible disease of catarrh. My sister has also been diseased in her head and eyes from childhood, so much so that the family thought she could not live. In the use of the Discovery she has received equal benefit with myself. We cordially recommend the Metaphysical Discovery.

MISS E. LOGAN'S CERTIFICATE.
I, Emma Logan, do hereby testify that I have had a severe cough for six years; would cough and raise for three hours at a time; often I could not lie down at night, going up stairs, any work would exhaust me. I have been using medicine and doctoring all the time, but was still getting worse. Providentially a friend procured Mrs. M. G. Brown's Metaphysical Discovery. I have used it one week, and my cough is nearly gone. I have got rid of the tightness in my throat. I can now take a long breath, which I could not do before. I can go up and down stairs without feeling any fatigue. I feel disease is fast leaving my system. No. 374 Hanover street, Boston, Mass.

A case of the worst type of Chronic Sore Eyes of Twenty-five years standing cured by my Metaphysical Discovery.
I, Eliza B. Jeffries, do certify that I have been suffering for twenty-five years with diseased eyes, taken from measles when a child. I cannot describe the nature of all my sufferings, but will state that my eyes ran corruption and water all the time. My cheeks also broke out down to my chin, and the matter from both eyes and face kept constantly dropping on my dress. All the doctors I applied to failed to render me relief, and I despaired of finding it until learning of the wonderful cures made by Mrs. M. G. Brown, when hope entered my breast. I went to see her, and brought home with me the Metaphysical Discovery. I used it according to directions, and now most solemnly and thankfully declare, that through the blessing of God and the use of Mrs. M. G. Brown's medicines I am a cured woman. ELIZA B. JEFFRIES, Hollidaysburg, Pa.

FIVE NEW CASES OF DEAFNESS IN AND AROUND PHILADELPHIA.
Noises in the Head, Running of the Ears, Stiff Neck and Sore Throat cured by Mrs. M. G. Brown, 410 Arch street, Metaphysical Physician, Professor on the Eye, Ear, Throat and Scalp.
The following persons have been cured of the above diseases, through the use of my Metaphysical Discovery:
Miss Rebecca Watson, St. Paul street, Frankford, cured of deafness and noises in the head, can now hear the children called by their names in the next house.
William Einwechler, 1349 North Front street, a lad of about 15 years, was very deaf; can now hear the notes distinctly on the piano. Could not hear a sound before. His whole system is benefitted, as he was an invalid.
Peter Kelly, 1827 South Second street, was quite deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, has regained the hearing of both well.
Daniel Humphreys, of Darby township, had a swelled and stiff neck for eight years, could not turn his head without turning round his whole body; had also a large lump, size of a ball, and hard, under his chin, for one year. Both have disappeared through the use of my Metaphysical Discovery.
A son of Captain David Ware, in Wilmington, Delaware, has been cured of deafness and running of the ears, of 15 years standing, spent large sums of money on different remedies; could find no benefit; procured my Metaphysical Discovery, which immediately cured him.

CERTIFICATE FROM THE REV. P. S. HENSON, PASTOR OF THE BROAD STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA.
From injuries received in my right eye when a boy, a chronic inflammation has been produced, in consequence of which I suffered martyrdom. Every moment of my waking life was embittered, and I was frequently unable to sleep at night. A variety of remedies has been resorted to without success, and I entertained the purpose, as a last resort, of having the ball taken out of the socket, in the hope of thus finding relief. In the meantime, most providentially, I noticed one day in a shop window a bottle of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER. I had never heard of it before, and I determined to try it, and did, with the most delightful results. In a few days the painful irritation was removed. I could bear the strongest light, and went forth as it were to the enjoyment of a new life. I now keep a bottle of it always in the house, and if my eye seems at all disposed to annoy me, I give it a dose, and there is an end to it. I would not be without it for any amount of money. I have occasion to say further, that my wife used to suffer severely at times from protracted pain in and over her eyes, and she has found Poor Richard's Eye Water a sovereign specific in her case, giving her almost instant relief.
Grateful to God for the benefit I have personally received, I cannot but commend the preparation most cordially to those who have suffered like myself. P. S. HENSON,
Pastor of the Broad St. Baptist Church.
Residence, 1420 Poplar street, Philadelphia.

Criminal Court.

Court met as usual at nine o'clock yesterday morning, Judges Mellon and Stowe on the bench.

The jury in the case of Thomas Kennedy and Ellen Scanlon, tried on Thursday for the larceny of three hogs, returned a verdict of not guilty as to the boy Kennedy and guilty as to the woman Scanlon. The counsel for the defense made a motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial.

A cross suit between J. M. Edwards and Philip Richards was next taken up, Richards charging Edwards with aggravated assault and battery, and Edwards charging Richards with assault and battery. It seems that the parties, who reside near Soho, in the neighborhood of the Copper Works, had an old quarrel between them, which, from time to time, broke out into a fight, but which led to no serious results until August 11th. On that day they met near the Copper Works and indulged in some bitter words. These words at length led to blows, and the fight become a desperate one on Edwards' part, he using a knife on Richards and inflicting some severe cuts. Richards defended himself as well as he could, but seems to have confined his actions entirely to defensive operations. At last the combattants were separated, and the suits that led to yesterday's trial, instituted. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Richards, and he was discharged, Edwards to pay the costs of the case. Edwards was found guilty of aggravated assault and battery, and was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars, and the costs of the prosecution, and to undergo an imprisonment of three months in the county jail. It is presumed that he will not indulge any of his amiable little weaknesses for the next ninety days.

Joseph Flichenstine, of Birmingham, was arraigned on a charge of assault and battery on Joseph Dieterle. It was alleged that Joseph put his hand on Joseph's shoulder in a heavy manner, Joseph did not like the manner in which Joseph laid his hand on his shoulder, so he made information against Joseph for assault and battery. Joseph was held to answer at Court, and yesterday was placed on trial as stated, with Joseph as prosecuting witness. The jury found in their verdict that Joseph was not guilty, and ordered that Joseph pay half the cost, and Joseph pay the other half.

James B. Smith plead guilty on an indictment of larceny. On the night of August 28th, the defendant stole a sett of buggy harness, worth $30, from the stable of M. Little, in Collins township. He was remanded.

Catharine Blorkmyer, a little girl, was arraigned for the larceny of $30. In July last the defendant was employed as servant in the family of Chrysostom H. Wilhelm, in East Birmingham. On the 9th of July, $30 in gold and silver was stolen from Chrysostom, and Catherine was charged with having taken it. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Morris McLaughlin plead guilty to selling liquor without license, and was remanded for sentence.

John Knork was arraigned on two indictments, one for assault and battery and the other for surety of the peace, his wife, Mary Knork, being the prosecuting witness in each case. He was found guilty of both offences, and for the first was ordered to pay a fine of six cents and the costs of prosecution, and in the other was required to give $1,000 bail to keep the peace.

John A. Seitle, arraigned for selling liquor to minors, on oath of J. Edmonston, of McKeesport, was acquitted.

Sarah A. Vinak and Hannah Templer, were each prosecutrix and defendant in a cross-suit for assault and battery. Each defendant was found not guilty, and each prosecutrix required to pay half the costs.

A case of desertion was next brought up, Owen Mack, of the Fifth ward, being charged with desertion by his wife, Mary Mack. The defendant was a young bachelor in June last, and the prosecutrix was an old widow with a child of twelve years. They became acquainted at that time, and in July were married, the bride elect buying the wedding clothes for her happy swain. She took him home to her house in the Fifth ward, and he lived with her a week, during which time he gave her $5. At the end of that time she went away one day, and on coming back, missed $40, which she accused her husband of taking. He became angry and left her, and has never returned since. The case was partially heard by the Court, and the prisoner remanded for a further consideration.

One or two trifling cases of surety were heard, and the Court adjourned.

A Jehu Commits an Assault and Battery.

Patrick Develin resides in the neighborhood of Moorhead's rolling mill, in Pitt township, and is employed by Charles Anderson to drive a coal team. Yesterday, Patrick became so elated with the Johnson reception, that he quit work and went to see the tourists off on the Eastern train. While awaiting their coming at the Union Depot, Patrick kept up his spirits by pouring some down his capacious throat, and by the time the party had started to the east, Patrick was so very tight as to be unable to navigate safely. Something must be done, however, in order to reach his residence, and at length he called a cabman, whom he informed of his desire to go home. The worthy Jehu promised to carry Patrick safely in his vehicle to his abode, for the small sum of one dollar and fifty cents, which offer was accepted, and the carriage rolled on until it reached the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Pride street, where Patrick insisted on getting out to have "another drink." The driver was unwilling to accede to his proposition at first, but finally succumbed and the twain together entered the Union House and had "a smile." The air of the saloon seemed to agree with Develin and he made known to the surprised driver his intention of remaining there during the evening. The driver did not object to the new programme, but he insisted on being paid the full fare agreed upon. This Develin refused to do and offered one-third of the amount, stating that it was ample compensation for the use of the vehicle for the time he had occupied it. An altercation immediately ensued between the parties, which resulted in Develin being knocked down and severely beaten. As soon as he recovered he repaired to the office of Alderman Lynch and instituted proceedings against Michael Mullen, the driver, for assault and battery and the larceny of $2.50, which Develin missed on his recovery. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mullen.

The Departure.

Mr. Johnson and his party had intended to remain in the city until yesterday afternoon and attend the casting of the great twenty inch gun at the Fort Pitt Works. When, however, it became known that the casting of the gun had been delayed by the breaking of the great chain that supported the flask, it was determined that the departure should take place at half past seven o'clock in the morning. Moreover, Mr. Johnson had an earnest desire to cross the mountains by daylight, which had something to do with hastening the departure.

Accordingly, a short time before train time, the party left the St. Charles in carriages, and proceeded to the music of a band to the Union Depot, where a special train was in waiting. On the way to the depot a crowd of newsboys and an old negro rushed up to Mr. Johnson's carriage and shook his hand.

Mr. Seward was unable to accompany the party, owing to indisposition, and remained at the hotel until eleven o'clock, when he took the train through to Philadelphia. The party will reach Washington to-night, and then the Johnsonian progress will be ended.

Meeting of Loyal Ladies.

Pursuant to request of the President Committee, a large number of the loyal ladies of Pittsburgh and vicinity, assembled on Friday, the 14th, at City Hall, where, on motion, Mrs. Samuel McKee, was called to preside. The object of the meeting was stated to be to take steps for the decoration of the hall for the Soldiers and Sailors National Convention. The following ladies were selected as Vice Presidents:

Mrs. General A. L. Pearson, Mrs. John McCargo, Mrs. James A. Christy, Miss Mary H. Gray, Miss Rachel McFadden, Miss Mattie McKelvy, Miss Ella Sawyer, Miss Ellen Murdock, Mrs J. R. McCune, Mrs. Priscilla Verner, Mrs. B. F. Preston, Miss Matilda Denny, Mrs. Gen. F. H. Collier.

Secretaries—Miss Mary Sawyer, Mrs. Margaret Montooth.

Mrs. Christy moved that the meeting adjourn to meet to-day, Saturday, at 2 P. M., at which time the loyal ladies of the vicinity are invited to attend.

The County Agricultural Fair.

The Board of Managers of the Allegheny County Agricultural Society have made arrangements with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to run trains at the following hours to and from the grounds during the Fair week, thus affording ample accommodations for the transportation of all who wish to attend the exhibition: The first train will leave the Union Depot at 10:20 A. M., the next at 10:50, and the other morning train at 11:30. Returning trains will leave the Fair grounds at 1:53 P. M., 3:47, 5:59 and 8:48 P. M. Excursion tickets will be issued at all way stations, good for return until September 21st. All articles intended for exhibition will be carried at reduced rates. Arrangements are also being perfected with the Allegheny Valley Railroad to run trains at other hours than that settled on by the Central road, and thus half hour trips will be made to the Fair and return. These, together with the Citizens' Passenger Railway, will make the exhibition easy of access.

Mortuary Report.

Dr. G. L. McCook, Physician to the Board of Health, reports nineteen deaths as the total for the week ending September 9th. Of these eleven were males and eight were females. All were white. The diseases resulting in death were as follows:

General debility, 1; valoular disease of heart, 1; inflammation of brain, 1; old age, 1; peritonitis, 1; dysentery, 1; paralysis, 1; pneumonitis, 1; diarrhea, 1; typhoid fever, 1; dropsy, 1; asphyxia, 1; cholera infantum, 1; irritation of bowels, 1; dysentery, 1; meningitis, 1; scarlet fever, 1; small pox, 1; chronic diarrhea, 1.

Of the above there were: Under 1 year, 3; from 1 to 2, 2; 2 to 5, 1; 5 to 10, 1; 10 to 15, 1; 20 to 30, 2; 40 to 50, 3; 50 to 60, 3; 60 to 70, 1; 70 to 80, 1; 80 to 90, 1.

Awful Death in the Penitentiary.—About eight o'clock on Thursday morning one of the convicts in the Penitentiary, named Holmes, indulged in the most blasphemous language, cursing everything, cursing Christ, cursing God, and denouncing God the author of all sin, and ridiculing the Bible. While uttering his blasphemy he was suddenly struck down with apoplexy and remained unconscious until he died at 12 o'clock noon, on Friday.

Religious.—The corner stone of a new Evangelical Lutheran Church will be laid today, at ten o'clock, at Barren Run Westmoreland county, which will be known as Hoffman's Church. Several prominent divines from a distance will be present and participate in the services connected with the ceremonies, which promises to be one of unusual interest in that section.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

The Soldiers' Convention.

Beat the long roll! Ho, they gather, they gather,
Roused, they are coming to battle again,
Malting and bronzed, and scarred but undaunted.
Beat the long Roll—they will rally again!
Stern are their faces and strained is each muscle
High beat their hearts for the struggle draws nigh,
Their's is allegiance—to God and to Freedom—
Their's but one watchword—to do or to die!

Andersonville! Has that double damnation,
Gone from your minds, are we brothers again?
Have we that Peace for which, breathless and blinded,
Staggered and battled a million of men?
From their damp brows, who lie low in their glory,
From their dim eyes that are covered with sod,
From their still lips can we gather no story.
Are we turned traitors to them and to God?

Beat the long Roll! Lift again the old Banner,
Conquer the foe ye have conquered, again,
Wrest from his hands all the spoil he has gathered,
Draw the sharp line between traitors and men.
Let "New Orleans" be your cry as ye rally—
Let New Orleans steel each bosom and hand,
Millions and millions, and millions are waiting
Death if ye falter, or life if ye stand!

West Va. L. G. PARKER.

Passenger Railways—A Suggestion.

We would suggest to the Presidents and Managers of the various passenger railways running from the city to the different suburbs, the expediency of running their cars until twelve o'clock, or at least until the entertainments at our regular places of amusement are over. It would not only allow those residing in the suburbs to visit our city after dark and spend the evening in the lecture room or dramatic temple, but would also result in a pecuniary benefit to the railway companies. Thus, while the public would be benefitted in a great measure, the enterprise of the managers would be fully compensated. It is a preposterous system now in vogue of shutting off all access to the suburbs as early as eleven o'clock, while many of our retail stores are yet open. There are persons who are forced to reside in either Manchester, Lawrenceville or Birmingham, who are employed in the city and cannot go home until near midnight. To these persons—and they are legion—the present system is very obnoxious. Let us have communication with our suburban districts until midnight, and our word for it, neither the patrons of the road nor the managers thereof, will have any cause to regret the change of time.

No Offence.—Mary Martin appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday and made oath against Andrew Jameson for surety of the peace. The prosecutrix alleges that Andrew said in an excited manner that he would get even with her before night. As this was all Andrew said, and the law had failed to provide for the punishment of persons who threatened to "get even," the Magistrate was forced to discharge the accused, each of the parties being ordered to pay half of the costs. Probably Mary will fully understand what Andrew means before she enters another suit against him.

Pocket Picked.—An old lady standing in the crowd on Wood street, while Mr. Johnson was speaking from the balcony of the St. Charles Hotel, on Thursday night, had her pocket cut open by some expert thief, and robbed of seventy-five cents in change, a prayer-book and a number of valuable letters.

Charged with Theft.—Charles Dudley appeared before Alderman Johns yesterday, and made oath against Philip Ammon for the larceny of $2,75 in currency from the till of the prosecutor, who keeps a grocery store in the Seventh ward. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. wilsNew

CAUTION.—The above Remedies have now been before the public many years, and their great success in the alleviation of human misery, awakened the cupidity of several parties, who use the name "Specific Pills," copy my labels, circulars and advertisements, sometimes word for word, and put up worthless compounds that disappoint the just expectations of the purchaser.

VERY LATEST NEWS.

The Presidential Trip—From Pittsburgh to Harrisburg—Scenes and Incidents—The Johnstown Calamity.

HARRISBURG, PA., September 14.—The President and party left the railroad station at Pittsburgh at eight o'clock, amid cheers and instrumental music.

The Secretary of State, who continues to be unwell, remained behind the party this morning under the direction of his physician, with the hope of effecting a quiet return to Washington before Saturday night.

Major Keons, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, has left us to travel with Mr. Seward, and see to his comfort. Major Keons has won the praise of the excursionists, by many acts of kindness, and especially by his promptness in seating them in carriages to and from the several railroad stations.

Colonel Chadeneck, of the Willard Hotel, has commendably discharged his duty in supplying refreshments while on the way.

We have two hundred and sixty miles to travel before reaching Harrisburg.

IRWINS, September 14—9 A. M.—This place is the headquarters of the Westmoreland Company's coal mines. The train halted a few seconds when the President was introduced and cheered. There were unanswered calls for Grant.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 14—9:15 A. M.—The President was received by an enthusiastic crowd, who displayed a banner with the words: "Welcome to the President." Secretary Welles, General Grant and Admiral Farragut were severally introduced and applauded.

LATROBE, PA., 9:45 A. M., September 14.—Senator Cowan introduced the distinguished members of the party. An address was requested from the President, who said he appreciated this kind demonstration; that he had always tried to discharge his duty faithfully to the people, and that he left in their hands the country's flag, with thirty-six stars, and the Constitution, which he knew, in their hands, would be safe. Boquets were presented to the President, Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut by the ladies. The card accompanying the boquet to the President said the young ladies who presented it intended to make the young gentlemen vote for a representative who would sustain his administration. When General Grant the second time appeared on the platform the band was requested to cease playing, whereupon he dryly remarked that they had better continue to listen to the music, as they would never listen to a speech from him.

JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 14—10:45 A. M.—This is the headquarters of the Cambria Works. At least three thousand persons were here assembled, the majority of whom cheered and yelled. Senator Cowan introduced the President as the great tribune of the American people, which met with an enthusiastic response. General Grant was greeted with the usual emphatic demonstration, while Admiral Farragut largely shared the plaudits of the people. Cheers and yells were again and again given, and whilst the jubilation was going on, a scene of thrilling interest and dreadful apprehension was presented.

Between the bridge and the railroad office and over the old canal, was a plank crossing or platform, on which probably four or five hundred persons, men, women and children, were closely gathered. Those who were on the platform of the hindmost car were witnesses of the giving away of the structure on which they were standing. First one section of it fell, precipitating the occupants to the ground, a height of apparently twenty feet. The second part soon followed, and in less than thirty seconds these persons were thrown one upon another or buried beneath the ruins. Women screamed, and with many excited men from the crowd, rushed to the immediate location of the disaster for the relief of their friends. A number of persons emerged from the wreck uninjured, judging from the fact that they were able to walk away. Men and women were seen with helpless children in their arms, their clothes and faces blackened by the coal dirt against which they had fallen. An old man was led out by two of his young neighbors. Demands were heard not to tread upon the planks lest some of the human beings might be crushed beneath them.

The train after remaining several minutes moved on, the work of rescue being still in progress and a number of wounded and dead apparently, being borne away. The train was obliged to leave to keep the time table right to avoid accidents. There was, therefore, no opportunity afforded to ascertain the extent of the accident. The President instructed Deputy Marshal O'Bierne to remain at Johnstown to learn the particulars and to extend all possible aid to the sufferers.

CONEMAUGH, Sept. 14.—The train stopped here for several minutes. The usual introductions took place. A cigar was presented to General Grant, to match as the donor said, the one at that time in his mouth.

GALLITZEN—Noon.—Here the Committee of Reception from Altoona came on board. It consisted of Dr. Finley, Chairman, and two others. This gentleman informed the President that they had been appointed by the Councils and citizens to tender to him the hospitalities of the town, and this they did without respect to party, and with great pleasure, both as the President and as a citizen of the United States.

The President, in returning his thanks, remarked he thought he knew how to appreciate such attentions. The Doctor said they had erected a platform and the people expected he would say something to them.

ALTOONA, 12:30.—The party were received by probably two thousand persons, some of them from the surrounding country. They were conducted to a platform bearing the motto, "Welcome to the President of the United States and the Heroes of the Army and Navy," H. Neff, Esq., speaking in behalf of the Common Council and the citizens. He said they felt it to be a duty, as well as a honor, to receive and extend a cordial welcome in their mountain home to the President of the Republic and to those members of the Cabinet and those distinguished officers of the Army and Navy who accompany them. Three cheers were given for the President, Secretary Welles, General Grant, Admiral Farragut and General Custar. The President made a brief response to the address.

The excursionists partook of an elegantly prepared dinner at Altoona.

A delegation appointed by the Democratic State Central Committee have accompanied us from Pittsburgh. It consists of Ex-Governor Porter, J. H. Creswell, Benjamin L. Forster, Chambers McKibben and H. B. Swan.

General Custar here left the party for Cleveland, to attend the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention.

HUNTINGDON, Sept. 14—2½ P. M.—The President and others were introduced to a large crowd. The former was called upon for a speech, when he merely returned his thanks.

MIFFLIN, Sept. 13, 4:30 P. M.—The President was warmly cheered. General Grant, Admiral Farragut and Secretary Welles were respectively introduced and received the usual honors. The Harrisburg Committee of escort came on board at this place. It consists of W. O. Hickock, Robert A. Lamberton, Robert L. Muench, George F. Weaver, C. J. Reese, W. H. Bell, J. S. Haldeman, H. M. Graydon and Augustus Bennett, who introduced the President of the Council and the Committee.

DUNCANNON, Sept. 14—5:20 P. M.—The train stopped a few moments, when the President, General Grant, Admiral Farragut and Secretary Welles were introduced and applauded. Three cheers were given for all the excursion party.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14—6:20 P. M.—The excursion party were met at the railroad station by several thousand persons, who enthusiastically cheered them as they entered the carriage. A salute of twenty-one guns was fired from Capitol Hill.

The President was conducted to the portico of the Bolton House, where Mayor Edwards extended to him the hospitality of Harrisburg and then introduced the President to the crowd. The President expressed his thanks for the cordial welcome which had been extended to him through the people's honored representative.

General Grant was subsequently introduced and received long continued cheers from the multitude.

The President to-night, at 10 o'clock, addressed the crowd from the balcony of the hotel.

Mr. Owen Thorn and several other gentlemen, a Committee of the City of Washington, have arrived to escort the President on his return.

A delegation from York, Pa., arrived here to-night. It was composed of Judge Fish, A. J. Glossbrenner and others. They tendered to the President the hospitalities of the borough, and presented to him the resolutions passed by the borough authorities, expressive of their high sense of the patriotism of the President and the distinguished officers accompanying him, for their efforts in defense of the constitution and the immediate restoration of the Union.

Secretary Seward arrived at Harrisburg tonight. The President visited him at the depot.

From accounts received to-night, it appears that the accident to-day at Johnstown, was of a most lamentable and fatal character. The platform extended over the canal, and was seventy-five feet long and from fifteen to eighteen feet wide. Several hundred persons were standing on it at the time the train arrived with the President to-day. It broke in the centre, and as a consequence, its occupants were precipitated to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet. The timbers and human beings were mixed up promiscuously, all falling in a confused mass. The giving way of the structure was witnessed from the cars, but it could not, at that time, be ascertained anything like an approximate extent of this disaster.

Colonel O'Beirne, Deputy Marshal of the District of Columbia, remained at the request of the President to render such assistance as might be necessary. This he did, Mr. Murphy, of Washington, rendering valuable assistance. The Colonel superintended the carrying from the wreck the victims, and placing them in wagons to be conveyed to their homes. Some had both arms and legs broken. Others were injured to a less extent with contused heads and severe bruises. Seven or eight persons were killed, while this evening six or more were in a dying condition. About ninety persons were severely, and a large number slightly injured. Colonel O'Beirne saw the bodies of two girls, apparently fourteen years of age; also those of two women and three men. Friends of the unfortunate parties hurried to the scene frantic with grief. Mothers with children in their arms were seeking their kindred. In fact, the entire population were gathered round the distressing scene, anxiously looking for, or inquiring for, friends or relatives. Physicians were sent for and twelve arrived from Pittsburgh. It is said the President has contributed liberally for the relief of the most necessitous by this sad calamity.

Re-Inauguration of Washington's Statue.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A celebration took place at the Military Institute, Lexington, Virginia, on Monday, on the occasion of replacing the statue of Washington, removed by Gen. Hunter during the war. Ex-Governor Letcher delivered the ceremonial address, which is quite lengthy. The following is his closing paragraph on the reconstruction topic: "A majority in the two Houses of Congress has denied representation to the people of the South. Let us not, however, despair on that account. An act so wrong in itself, so utterly indefensible, cannot be justified or excused, either on the score of principle or policy. This will correct itself, and ere long the people of the South will have their rights fully recognized. Let us be patient, and all will yet come right."

Louisville Cholera Report.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, September 14, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: Gold, 145@145⅝; 1881's, 111¼; Five Twenties, old, 111; do, new, 108¾; Ten-Forties, large, 98; Seven Thirties, large, 105⅞; Michigan Southern 83¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 85¼; Fort Wayne, 104⅝; Erie, 72; Western Union Telegraph, 58¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 108¼; Chicago & Northwestern common, 34⅝; do preferred, 65⅝.

The heavy shipments of gold from Europe sheared gold operators of their power for a few days, but the influx keeps up a lively demand for foreign exchange, which will soon have reached a point preventing any further shipments of coin, and may possibly stiffen the price of 5-20 bonds. The shipments of these securities to foreign countries have been enormous, as the high gold premium enabled parties of fair credit in the European cities to realize a handsome profit on their bills.

Gold was firmer this afternoon, and large amounts have been bought for a prospective rise. Government bonds are rather weak, and especially is this the case in regard to 7-30s, which are being offered in considerable amounts, mostly the third series, and mostly by comparatively small holders, tradesmen of limited means, and who want to buy goods. Large blocks of bonds are not offered to any extent, and some believe in a further advance as soon as the Secretary of the Treasury will disburse the balance of the temporary loan.

—The New York Tribune, of Thursday, says: Gold is still kept profitably strong by the bulls, who make the bears pay interest and a commission daily for its use. There is no great disposition to bull gold except by a few professional operators, who reason that as long as the drain for customs continues, and the market is not relieved by sales from the Treasury, or by the prepayment of the November interest, the premium cannot be materially reduced. The Department has another mode by which it can deprive the gamblers of their steadiest source of profit—the purchaser for customs duties. It has only to announce that it will make daily a price at which certificates redeemable at the custom-house for duties will be sold, and the gold bulls would come to grief. It would at once cut off their revenue from loaning gold and force them to carry their own property instead of having it carried. The daily withdrawal of $750,000 legal-tender money of National Bank notes and even from the banks, in addition the present drain, would soon tell upon the market and make gold speculations much less profitable, and consequently unpopular. The Secretary for the last year has been playing the part of a great "financial guide" board, pointing the way to specie payments but making no resolute forward movement himself. Since October, 1865, the Department has got rid of its call loans, its one year certificates, and, indeed, of all its short debt, which cannot be paid easily by current income. The Secretary must soon move in the matter of resumption and in the process have a very conservative effect upon speculators and traders upon borrowed money.

—Says the Philadelphia Press:

The demand for money is exceedingly light, while the supply offering is considerably in excess of the legitimate wants of the mercantile community. Dealers in national securities find little difficulty in obtaining all the money they need at three per cent, though the average rate is 4@5 per cent. There is a probability that the treasury will, before long, pay off its four per cent temporary deposits, known as clearing house certificates, and this will increase to some little extent the supply of currency in actual circulation by withdrawing it from the treasury vaults. As, however, the certificates are payable on demand, and a legal tender at the clearing-house, the process will virtually be like the Bank of England notes for gold at the bank, or like the cashing of a check at a bank here. The banks now use these certificates as a part of their reserve, but the latter is generally considerably in excess of the amount required by law, and in proportion as it is so, the immediate loanable resources of the banks would be increased by holding currency in their stead.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, September 14, 1866. }

There are no new features in the general markets worthy of special notice. The movements in produce continue on a rather limited scale, and while in the aggregate there is a fair volume of business, yet, the transactions in the leading commodities are of an unimportant character, the demand being almost wholly restricted to supplying the immediate wants of retailers and consumers.

ASHES—Firm and in good demand, and we can report regular sales at 6 for common Soda Ash; 6½ for Refined, and 15 for Pearls.

APPLES—the arrivals continue liberal, and as the market is fully supplied, prices are a shade easier. We now quote at $2,50 to $3 per bbl, for good to prime, and $3,50 for choice.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in limited supply; small sales of No. 1 Spring at $2,35 to 2,40. Oats not coming in so freely, and prices are looking up; sales from store at 43 to 45. Corn is quiet and unchanged; sales on track and in elevator at 77 to 80, as to quality. No movement in Rye or Barley.

FLOUR—The market continues very firm and somewhat excited, and as the stock is very much reduced, prices are well sustained. We continue to quote at $11,50 to 12 for good to choice brands of Spring Wheat; $12,25 to 12,50 for half Spring and half Winter; and $12,75 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is selling at $6,50 to 6,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, with regular sales at 17¼ to 17¾ for Shoulders; 19¼ to 20 for Ribbed Sides, and 25 to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quiet and unchanged at 22. Mess Pork is quoted firm at $34,50.

BUTTER—There is a continued fair demand for prime fresh, but packed is dull and entirely nominal. Sales of the former at 28 to 31—the latter figure for prime fresh Roll.

EGGS—Quiet but firm, with regular sales of fresh packed at 21 to 22—mostly at 22.

SWEET POTATOES—Firm, with regular sales of prime Jerseys at $6,25 to $6,50 per barrel.

CHEESE—Is steady at 15¼ to 16½ for Western Reserve; 17 to 18 for Hamburg, and 20 to 21 for Goshen.

PIG LEAD—Sales at 11¾@12.

LIME—Sales from store at $2 per bbl.

OIL—Lard Oil is firm and higher for prime standard Cincinnati brands.

HAY—Baled is in good demand, and sells on arrival at $20 to $24 per ton, according to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Sept. 14, 1866 }

CRUDE—The market for Crude continues quiet and a little weak, and while prices remain unchanged, the tendency seems to be downward. Sale of 1200 bbls, in bulk, at 15½, to arrive; 650 do at 15¾; 250 do at 16; and 500 at 20¼, packages included, free on board cars. Quotations may be fairly given at 15 to 16, bbls returned, and 20 to 21, packages included, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. Buyers, as a general thing, are holding off under the impression that the receipts will be large during the next few days, and that in that event, lower prices will follow.

REFINED—There is but little inquiry for bonded oil, and the market is dull and neglected, with a drooping tendency. We now quote at 38¼ to 39, on the spot, or 45 to 45½, for immediate delivery in Philadelphia; 45 for October, and 44½ for November. For December, there appears to be no demand whatever, and the same remarks will apply to January. The principal cause of prices being sustained for immediate delivery, is the fact, that there is none offering, and none of our refiners are in condition to sell, having all the contracts they can fill for this month, and many of them are sold ahead for October and November. The demand for free oil continues very light, being restricted wholly to supplying the local trade. We continue to quote at 58 to 60.

RESIDUUM—Is quiet and unchanged—last sales reported at $2,75 to $2,85 per bbl.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Fisher & Bro. | 2400 | D. M. Edgerton | 250 |
| Jackson & Co. | 1100 | Chess & Durham | 200 |

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Sept. 14, 1866. }

There has been a fair business done in metal during the past week, and with a good demand and reduced stock, the market is firm, and prices, although without essential change, are well sustained. As the river is again in navigable condition, arrivals of Hanging Rock iron may be expected within the next few days, and there is considerable inquiry for it. Blooms quiet and unchanged. Annexed will be found a partial report of the transactions during the week.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market—Clearing House Certificates to be Paid Off.

NEW YORK, September 14.—The money market remains very easy and the supply is still superabundant. The demand for call loans is readily met at four per cent. for large, and five per cent. for small loans. Prime discounts pass freely at 5@6½ per cent.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided to pay off the clearing house certificates in two installments, one on the twentieth of September, and the other on the twenty-fifth of October. The total amount is forty-five millions of dollars, and of this twenty-five millions will be paid out here.

It will thus be seen that Mr. McCulloch is reducing the public debt steadily and in his own quiet way without any derangement to the great business interests of the country. These certificates are to be paid in legal tender notes. The gold market closed dull at 145. The market for Exchange is lower owing to a falling off in the demand and the advance in American securities at the London Stock Exchange. Prime bankers' bills are quoted at 107@107½ for sixty days, and 108@108¼ for short sight. Francs are 527½ for long and 525 for short. There was an increased demand for Government Securities this afternoon and the market was a little firmer. The following are the closing prices: 5-20 Coupons of 1865, 108¼@108⅜; 10.40 Coupons, 98¼@98⅜; July 7-30s, 105½@106.

The Post's money article says the loan market is easy at 5 per cent, with an increasing volume of transactions at 4 per cent. Commercial paper is more freely offered at 5@7c. Stock market irregular and dull. Governments are offered more freely, but quotations are well sustained. Railroad shares steady, except North Western, which is weak, and Erie and New York Central firm. Government securities are decidedly better. After the Board, New York Central was 107¼; Erie 72¼; Hudson River 120¾; Illinois Central 122¾.

Gold lower, opening at 145¾, advancing to 145, and closing at 144⅞. Government stocks more active and a shade higher. Freights to Liverpool steady. Stocks better; Toledo, 116; Rock Island, 109; Northwestern, 34⅞; do preferred, 66¼; Illinois Central, 122; Michigan Southern, 83¾; Reading, 115¾; Western Union Telegraph, 58¾; New York Central, 106⅞; Erie, 72¼; Hudson, 122; 5-20 Coupons, 98⅝; Treasury 8-30s, 106; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 29⅛; North Carolina 6s, 62¼.

Gold, at 4:30, was 145. At the close the following were the quotations: United States 5-20 coupons, 112; New York Central, 106¾; Erie, 72¾; Hudson River 121⅞; Reading, 113; Michigan Central, 111; Michigan Southern, 83⅝; Illinois Central, 122; Pittsburgh, 86; Northwestern, 35; do preferred, 66; Toledo, 115⅞; Rock Island, 108⅞; Fort Wayne, 105.

The Post's Washington special says: At the close of business yesterday the Treasury had about $80,000,000 in gold. Of this amount $64,000,000 belonged to the government, the balance being gold certificates. No considerable disbursements from the Treasury before November are to be paid for interest on Five-Twenties.

Eaton's Circular reports that the low price ruling last week have brought in buyers for consumption and export, and that the sales and re-sales fall short of 3000 barrels—the market leaving off at full prices.

There had been no sales of crude, though there was some inquiry for the several cargoes afloat.

The Texas Cattle Trade.

There are now 60,000 to 100,000 head of these Texas cattle pastured along the eastern and northeastern limits of the State, and destined for the markets of the Mississippi. They are detained where they are by the statutes of neighboring States, which forbid their being driven through them before the 10th of November; the reason being a disease called the Texas cattle fever, which prevails in the summer months, and is contagious. Estimated at only $10 per head, there is here a value of $1,000,000 in cattle already under way for the East. A late number of a paper published at Corpus Christi, Texas, says that there is a single stock-raiser on the Neuces River whose brands now cover more than 30,000 head of cattle. They are sold there at about $5 per head. He could therefore sell off $150,000 worth of stock at this low rate, and still have enough milch cows left to supply the usual family demand.—New Orleans Bee.

RIVER NEWS.

At this point the river rose several inches during Thursday night and yesterday, and was still swelling last evening, with five feet in the channel. At Oil City the Allegheny was reported at a stand in the forenoon with thirty inches, and thirty-three at Franklin—seven miles below. Another swell was expected there, however, as heavy rains are reported in that part of the country during the past day or two.

The W. A. Caldwell and the Leni Leoti, from Parkersburg, and the Julia No. 2, from Wheeling, constitute the arrivals. The last named boat has gone into the Pittsburgh and Portsmouth trade. The Leni Leoti cleared on time, and the Forest City is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving on time.

The towboat Oil Valley left for Oil City yesterday morning, and the Keystone and Louisville were making preparations to leave for the same point last evening.

The Fayette, in command of Captain M. A. Cox, is the regular packet for Brownsville this evening, leaving promptly on time. The Fayette is one of the most popular boats in the trade, and the same remarks will apply to her commander.

The Yorktown, Capt. Wash. Ebbert, with Capt. Standish Peppard in the office, will leave to-day without fail for St. Louis, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind.

The Importer, from St. Louis, is due, and will doubtless arrive to-day or to-night, and the Bayard, from Parkersburg, may be expected at the wharf to-morrow morning.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Thursday, says: The river has swollen a foot and a half at this place. The Illinois is swelling; larger boats are going into that stream, and business is improving. The Upper Mississippi is swelling at and below Dubuque, and perhaps above; our through St. Paul packets, and others run uninterruptedly, and business in that trade is likewise improving.

The following steamboat sales have just taken place: Champion, towboat, sold by Alexander Goyer to David Campbell, for $2,500. Governor Sharkey, one-third, by Jas. L. Smith to Turton & Co., for $3,500. B. L. Woodward, by Keating & Co., to Edward Tranbe, for $15,000.

Says Thursday's Cincinnati Commercial: Captain John Patterson has concluded to commence loading the Abeona for New Orleans, and will leave on Saturday............The J. R. Gilmore, Capt. R. S. Yerkes, has abandoned her Arkansas River trip, and will leave for Memphis in the Memphis Packet Company's Line on Saturday. Capt. Stant. J. Batchelor will have charge of affairs in the office.........Capt. J. B. Conway, of the Silver Cloud No. 2, arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday......The Lotus No. 2 will follow the Armadillo to New Orleans..........The Potomac, Capt. Chas. Muhleman, will resume her regular trips to Wheeling, leaving here every Friday.
